
Detailed table of contents

Editorial 29

PIOTR MOSTOWIK

[Professor | Jagiellonian University in Cracow]

“May you live in interesting times.” General remarks 33

1. The extreme diversity of legal systems in the world 33
2. Stricte surrogacy and other forms of “surrogate birth” 34
3. The problem of assumptions and progressive content of surrogacy 36
4. The need for a complex research methodology 37
5. The first detailed questions identified as research topics 39
6. Final remarks 42

Chapter I. Philosophy, sociology, and theory of law 43

MARTA SONIEWICKA

[Associate Professor | Jagiellonian University in Cracow]

Ethical and philosophical issues arising from surrogate motherhood 45

1. Introduction 45
2. Terminological issues – concepts and definitions 49
3. Landmark cases 57
 - 3.1. The case of Baby M 58
 - 3.2. Johnson v. Calvert 61
 - 3.3. In re Marriage of Buzzanca 63
 - 3.4. Malahoff v. Striver; Striver v. Parker 65
 - 3.5. The problem of the concept of motherhood (parenthood) – what constitutes motherhood? 66

- 3.6. The problem of the subject of the surrogacy contract – what is sold and bought? 68
- 4. The meaning of the relationship to our body 71
 - 4.1. Aristotelian-Thomist approach 72
 - 4.2. The Kantian approach 72
 - 4.3. The utilitarian approach 74
 - 4.4. The Lockean approach 75
 - 4.5. The Phenomenological approach 76
 - 4.6. The problem of the commercialization of the body in the context of surrogacy contracts 77
- 5. The concept of reproductive autonomy and its limits (the right to privacy, the right to self-determination, the right to self-expression, the right to decide about one's body and reproductive abilities) 78
 - 5.1. The Kantian meaning (deontological approach) 79
 - 5.2. The Utilitarian meaning (consequential approach) 79
 - 5.3. The Lockean meaning (libertarian approach) 80
 - 5.4. The Neo-Aristotelian meaning (communitarian approach) 80
 - 5.5. Reproductive autonomy and surrogacy 81
- 6. Consequential arguments in debate over surrogacy 82
 - 6.1. Surrogacy and the problem of harm to children (the child's welfare) 82
 - 6.2. Surrogacy and the problem of harm to women 85
 - 6.3. Social consequences: undermining family structure 87
- 7. Deontological arguments in debate over surrogacy 88
 - 7.1. Instrumentalization and commodification of children 88
 - 7.2. Commodification and exploitation of women 91
- 8. Neo-Aristotelian arguments in debate over surrogacy 92
 - 8.1. The meaning of motherhood (the problem of the integrity of motherhood) 92
 - 8.2. The meaning of procreation (the problem of commercialization and instrumentalization, integrity of procreation) 93
 - 8.3. The intentions, motives and the parent-child relationship 94
 - 8.4. The problem of the identity of a child (vague and complicated familial bonds, access to genetic information) 96
- 9. Summary 97

NATHALIE BAILLON-WIRTZ

[Associate Professor | University of Reims Champagne-Ardenne]

Surrogate motherhood in France: ethical and legal issues 99

- 1. Introduction: What is surrogacy in France? 99
 - 1.1. The portrait of intending parents 100
 - 1.2. Destination countries and procreative tourism 101
 - 1.3. The variety of reproductive techniques used 102

1.4. Lack of legal definition	103
2. Prohibition in France	103
2.1. Prohibition in Civil Law	103
2.2. Prohibition in Criminal Law	106
2.3. Incitement to abandonment and adoption	107
2.4. The substitution of a child	108
3. Effects of a Cross-border Commercial Surrogacy Arrangement in France	112
3.1. Travel document, nationality and transcription of birth certificate	112
3.1.1. Rules of recognition of foreign judgments in France	113
3.1.2. Rules of recognition of foreign acts of civil status	113
3.1.3. Travel documents	114
3.1.4. Nationality	116
3.2. Recognition and legal parentage	122
3.2.1. When the mother is known	123
3.2.2. When the mother is unknown	123
3.2.3. Establishment of paternity	124
3.2.4. Establishment of maternity	124
4. Current debates	126
4.1. Discursive context of reproductive ethics and surrogacy	128
4.2. Debates concerning the recognition of the filiation of children born via international surrogacy arrangements	131

MIROŚLAW BORUTA

[Ph.D. | Pedagogical University of Cracow]

Surrogate motherhood from the perspective of sociology and cultural anthropology 133

1. Preliminary remarks	134
2. The beginnings of human life in the biological perspective	136
3. The origins of human life in the cultural perspective	138
4. Natural and unnatural conception in the biological perspective versus natural and unnatural conception in the cultural perspective	139
5. Surrogacy laws in Poland	142
6. Surrogate pregnancy in the consciousness of Polish society	146
7. Surrogate pregnancy in the teaching of the Roman Catholic Church	147
8. India, a known and specific case	148
9. In vitro treatments and surrogate pregnancies in other parts of Europe and the world	151
10. Surrogate pregnancy in mass culture	151
11. Critical analysis of the literature on the subject	153
12. Evaluation of the phenomenon and the forecast	158
13. Final conclusions	159

JUSTYNA HOLOCHER

[Ph.D. | Pedagogical University of Cracow]

Surrogate motherhood – terminological considerations. Three perspectives: theory and philosophy of law, legal doctrine, and public debate 163

1. Introduction 163
2. The issues of terminology 163
3. De lege lata, de lege ferenda 166
4. Summary 170

BŁAŻEJ KMIECIAK

[Ph.D. | Medical University in Lodz]

The phenomenon called “surrogate motherhood” and the sociological approach – current (casuistic) and future (general) perspectives 171

1. Introductory remarks 171
2. Purpose and methods of work 172
3. Motherhood 173
4. Prenatal psychopedagogy in relation to mother-child relations 176
5. Surrogacy as a social phenomenon 179
6. Surrogacy: between emotions and a contract 187
7. Surrogacy – a complexity of relationships 191
8. Summary 199

EWA KOZERSKA

[Ph.D. | University of Opole]

TOMASZ SCHEFFLER

[Ph.D. | University of Wrocław]

The lawfulness of the institution of surrogate motherhood from the standpoint of political and legal doctrines 203

1. Introduction 203
2. From Socrates to Christianity 204
3. Naturalism and anti-naturalism – up to the present 207
4. Between theory and practice 229
5. Final remark 236

Chapter II. Filiation as a result of surrogacy contract: (non)acceptance under internal law and (non)recognition of foreign law 237

KATAŽYNA MIKŠA

[Ph.D. | Mykolas Romeris University in Vilnius]

NATALJA ŽITKEVIČ

[Ph.D. | Switzerland-based lawyer]

Surrogate motherhood in the Baltic states 239

1. Introduction 239
2. Surrogacy arrangements in the national laws of the Baltic States 240
 - 2.1. Lithuania 240
 - 2.1.1. Regulation of assisted reproductive technology 240
 - 2.1.2. Civil law 242
 - 2.1.3. Criminal law 244
 - 2.2. Latvia 246
 - 2.3. Estonia 248
 - 2.3.1. Criminal Law 249
 - 2.3.2. Family Law 250
 - 2.4. Law applicable to surrogacy arrangements in the Baltic States 251
3. Situation of the child born from a surrogate mother abroad 252
 - 3.1. How to take a child born by a surrogate mother abroad to the home country of the intended parents? 254
 - 3.2. Registration of birth and issuance of the birth certificate 255
 - 3.2.1. Lithuania 255
 - 3.2.2. Latvia 257
 - 3.2.3. Estonia 257
 - 3.3. Nationality of the child 259
4. Discussions on surrogacy issues in the Baltic States 261
5. Conclusions 267

AVISHALOM WESTREICH (ד"ר אבישלום וסטרייך)

[Ph.D., Senior Lecturer | College of Law and Business in Ramat Gan

(המרכז האקדמי למשפט ולעסקים, רמת גן)]

Surrogacy and egg donation in Israel: legal arrangements, difficulties, and challenges 269

1. Background 269
2. Conceptual Matters: Motherhood in Surrogacy and Egg Donation 271
3. Surrogacy and Egg Donation: Restricted Openness 276
 - 3.1. Preserving the Traditional, Heterosexual Family Structure 277
 - 3.2. The Centrality of Genetic Connections 281
 - 3.3. Protecting Religious Interests 283
4. Proposals for Changing the Current Legal Situation 287

ANDREA NICOLUSSI

[Professor | Catholic University of Milan]

The ban on surrogate motherhood in Italy and the challenge of unlimited regulatory competition 291

1. Italian Legislation on Surrogate Motherhood 291
 - 1.1. Surrogate Motherhood and the Law No. 40 of 2004 (the Medically Assisted Reproduction Act) within the Framework of the Italian Constitution 291
 - 1.2. The Contract of Surrogate Motherhood, the Law of Contract and the Opinion of the Italian Committee for Bioethics 295
 - 1.3. Cross-Border Surrogate Motherhood, Public Policy (ordre public) and the Adoption Act 296
2. Italian jurisprudence on surrogate motherhood 299
 - 2.1. Opening premise 299
 - 2.2. Cases before Law No. 40 of 19 February 2004 (the Medically Assisted Reproduction Act) 300
 - 2.3. Jurisprudence after the Law No. 40/2004. The ban of surrogate motherhood in a changed context. The judicial dismantlement of the Law No. 40 of 2004 302
 - 2.4. Reproductive tourism and some judicial courts 304
 - 2.5. The case of Paradiso and Campanelli v. Italy and some conclusions 306
3. The point of view of the Italian doctrine. Between facts and norms 310
 - 3.1. The legal ban on surrogate motherhood and the argument based on solidarity in favor of gratuitous surrogacy 310
 - 3.2. The tension between the constitutional concept of filiation based on the biological aspect and the contractual concept of filiation based on self-determination and the right to become a parent: arguments 311
 - 3.3. The ban on surrogate motherhood and reproductive tourism as a vehicle for regulatory competition in the matter of filiation 316

ANDREI A. NOVIKOV (Андрей Новиков)

[Associate Professor (Доцент) | State University of Petersburg (Санкт-Петербургский государственный университет)]

Surrogate motherhood in Russia and the Commonwealth of Independent States: legislation, jurisprudence, and political discussion 321

- Introduction 321
1. Legal regulation of surrogate motherhood in Russia 323
 - 1.1. “Medicalized” model? 323
 - 1.2. Surrogate motherhood contract 331
 - 1.3. Disputes about the acceptability of surrogate motherhood 339
 2. Surrogate motherhood in CIS countries 345
 - 2.1. Kazakhstan 345
 - 2.2. Belarus 349

2.3. Ukraine	353
2.4. Armenia	354
2.5. Kyrgyzstan	356
2.6. Uzbekistan	357
2.7. Azerbaijan	360
2.8. Tajikistan	361
2.9. Moldova	362
Conclusion	363

CARLOS MARTÍNEZ DE AGUIRRE

[Professor of Civil Law | University of Saragossa (Universidad de Zaragoza)]

Surrogate motherhood in Spanish and Latin American law: the law and the loophole 367

1. Spanish legal rules on filiation: a quick overview	367
1.1. Basic Spanish rules relating to filiation	367
1.2. Adoptive filiation	369
1.3. Reproductive technologies	371
2. Surrogate motherhood in Spanish Law: legal approach	372
2.1. Legal rules on Surrogate motherhood	372
2.2. Cross-border surrogacy in Spanish Law: facts and (administrative and judicial) decisions	373
2.3. Current legislative proposal	375
3. The debate about surrogate motherhood in Spain: the positions	376
3.1. Social and political debate	376
3.2. The Spanish Bioethics Committee Report on the Ethical and Legal Aspects of Surrogacy	378
4. The debate about surrogate motherhood in Spain: the arguments	380
4.1. Arguments regarding surrogate motherhood	380
4.1.1. Arguments supporting surrogate motherhood	380
4.1.2. Arguments against surrogate motherhood	383
4.2. Cross-border surrogacy in Spanish Law (and in Spanish legal practice)	385
4.2.1. The recognition of foreign decisions legal technique	386
4.2.2. The Spanish legislation regarding Civil Registry	386
4.2.3. “Legal pursuant to Spanish law”: cross-border surrogacy and Spanish international public policy	387
5. Brief reference to surrogate motherhood in Argentina, Chile, Mexico and Brazil	391
5.1. Argentina	391
5.2. Chile	393
5.3. Mexico	395
5.4. Brazil	396

MONIKA WAŁACHOWSKA

[Professor | Nicolaus Copernicus University in Toruń]

Surrogate motherhood under different laws and federal issues – the case of the USA 399

1. Introduction 399
2. Legal theories and surrogacy contracts 403
3. State's laws – uniformity or confusion? 405
4. Theories pro and against surrogacy 409
 - 4.1. Parental rights – what prevails: genetics/biology or intent? 410
 - 4.2. Parenthood by contract? 411
 - 4.3. Parenthood by genes? 412
 - 4.4. Gestation and parenthood 412
 - 4.5. Best interests of a child – how does it matter in surrogacy contracts? 412
 - 4.6. Declaration of parenthood – should this be enough? 414
 - 4.7. Specific issues – homosexual partners/spouses 414
 - 4.8. Rights and interests of the surrogate. Is surrogacy exploitation? 415
5. Constitutional values 418
6. International Human Rights Law 419
- Conclusions 420

ALLA ANATOLIIVNA HERTS (Алла Анатоліївна Герц)

[Associate Professor (Доцент) | Ivan Franko National University of Lviv (Львівський національний університет імені Івана Франка)]

Surrogate motherhood in Ukraine: method of infertility treatment, judges' activism and doctrine 421

1. Introduction 421
2. The results of the research 423
3. Conclusions 446

Chapter III. National and international standards of human dignity, maternity, paternity, and childhood 449

CARLOS MARTÍNEZ DE AGUIRRE

[Professor of Civil Law | University of Saragosse (Universidad de Zaragoza)]

International surrogacy arrangements: a global “Handmaid’s Tale”? 451

1. Introduction and general approach 451
 - 1.1. The “booming” of international surrogacy as a global issue 451
 - 1.2. Dealing with international surrogacy 454
2. The figures of international surrogacy: children, money, contracts 456
3. The European Court of Human Rights on surrogacy 460
 - 3.1. Cases Mennesson and Labassee 461
 - 3.1.1. Facts 461

3.1.2. Decision of the Court	462
3.1.3. Advisory opinion of the European Court of Human Rights.	463
3.2. Cases Foulon and Bouvet	464
3.3. The case of Paradiso-Campanelli	466
3.3.1. Facts	466
3.3.2. Decision of the Court	468
3.3.3. Concurring and dissenting opinions	469
3.4. The ECHR judgments on international surrogacy arrangements issues: some conclusions and a few reflections	470
4. International initiatives concerning surrogacy	472
4.1. European level	472
4.1.1. European Parliament	473
4.1.2. Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe	473
4.2. Global level	477
4.2.1. Hague Conference on International Private Law	477
4.2.2. The 2018 Report of the United Nations Special Rapporteur on the sale and sexual exploitation of children, including child prostitution, child pornography and other child sexual abuse material	479
5. Final remarks	484

WITOLD BORYSIAK

[Ph.D. | University of Warsaw]

Motherhood under domestic constitutional principles (at the example of the 1997 Polish Constitution) 487

1. Introduction	487
2. The history of the Polish regulation	490
2.1. Constitutions of the Second Polish Republic and the Polish People's Republic	490
2.2. Works in the Constitutional Committee of the National Assembly	491
3. Influence of the international regulations on the Constitution of the Republic of Poland	495
4. The meaning of the motherhood and the notion of parenthood and fatherhood	497
5. The subjective and objective scope of the concept of motherhood	499
5.1. Introduction	499
5.2. Motherhood and the procedure of the in vitro fertilization	501
6. Scope of care and protection over motherhood	503
6.1. Introductory remarks	503
6.2. Time limits of care and protection	505
6.3. Elements creating the protection of motherhood	506

AGNIESZKA CZUBIK

[Ph.D., Advocate | Jagiellonian University in Cracow]

Protection of women's rights and health in international law versus "surrogacy business" 509

- Introduction 509
- 1. Definition of terms 510
- 2. Protection of human dignity in the context of contracts for surrogate motherhood 512
- 3. The need to have a child and the right to protect private and family life 515
- 4. The issues of health protection and health care in relation to a surrogate mother and an intentional mother 518
- 5. De lege ferenda postulates 522
- Summary 525

ŁUKASZ MIROCHA

[Ph.D., Advocate]

Dark side of diversity. Actions undertaken in the system of the Council of Europe with regard to the issue of surrogate motherhood 527

- 1. Introduction 527
- 2. The Council of Europe institutions involved in the problem of surrogate motherhood 529
 - 2.1. Pronouncements and other actions of the Council of Europe institutions regarding surrogate motherhood 530
 - 2.2. Report on human artificial procreation drafted by the CAHBI (1989) 531
 - 2.3. Report on principles concerning the establishment and legal consequences of parentage – "The White Paper" drafted by the CDCJ (2004) 534
 - 2.4. Draft recommendation on the rights and legal status of children and parental responsibilities prepared by the CDCJ (2011) 536
 - 2.5. "Children's rights related to surrogacy" report drafted by Committee on Social Affairs, Health and Sustainable Development (2016) 538
- 3. Other actions of the Council of Europe regarding surrogate motherhood 540
- 4. Surrogate motherhood and Convention on Human Rights and Biomedicine 542
- 5. European Court of Human Rights case law related to the problem of surrogate motherhood 543
 - 5.1. ECHR (Fifth Section) judgement in the case of Mennesson v. France, 26 June 2014, application no. 65192/11 544
 - 5.2. ECHR (Second Section) decision in the case of D. and Others v. Belgium, 8 July 2014, application no. 29176/13 548
 - 5.3. ECHR (Grand Chamber) judgement in case of Paradiso and Campanelli v. Italy, 24 January 2017, application no. 25358/12 551
- 6. Final remarks 556

AGATA NIŻNIK-MUCHA

[Ph.D. | Jagiellonian University in Cracow]

ALEKSANDRA DĘBOWSKA

[Ph.D. Student | Jagiellonian University in Cracow]

Maternity and paternity in Constitutional Tribunal cases – judgments and obiter dicta 559

1. Terminological problems 559
2. Autonomous and systemic meaning of Article 18 of the Constitution in the light of the case-law of the Constitutional Tribunal 563
3. Constitutional notion of motherhood in the case-law of the Constitutional Tribunal 568
4. Constitutional notion of “parenthood” in the case-law of the Constitutional Tribunal 574
5. Conclusions 586

MARCIN SOKOŁOWSKI

[Associate Professor | Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań]

Surrogate motherhood in legal and political activities of the institutions of the European Union 589

1. General remarks regarding EU’s legal competences 589
2. EU Family law in the context of European citizenship 591
3. Legal actions of the European Union regarding legal protection of European citizens 593
4. Other EU actions and initiatives taken internally and externally regarding rights of citizens with special attention given to the protection of women 595
5. UE Legal competence in relation to international private law and family law 598
6. Competence with regard to the aspects of surrogacy as part of family law and measures to protect women’s rights 600
7. Final thoughts 602

AGNIESZKA WEDEŁ-DOMARADZKA

[Ph.D. | Kazimierz Wielki University in Bydgoszcz]

Surrogacy – a solution that brings new problems.

International organizations and surrogate motherhood 607

1. Introduction 607
2. Definitions and terminology 610
3. Overview of the Organization and Committees involved in consideration of surrogacy process 613
 - 3.1. Treaty bodies and other bodies of the UN system 614
 - 3.1.1. Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women (CEDAW), Human Rights Treaties Division (HRTD), Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) 614

3.1.2.	The Office of the High Commissioner for Refugees	617
3.1.3.	United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime	618
3.2.	Support of the UN's system bodies for national bodies and/or national initiatives	619
3.2.1.	United Nations Population Fund, Danish Institute for Human Rights, Office of The High Commissioner for Human Rights	619
3.2.2.	Sama Resource Group for Women and Health supported by United Nations Population Fund	620
3.3.	Opinions of non-UN bodies	624
3.3.1.	The International Commission on Civil Status	624
3.3.2.	The Hague Conference on Private International Law	625
3.4.	Non-governmental organizations statements about surrogacy	632
3.4.1.	European Centre for Law and Justice	632
3.4.2.	World Youth Alliance	633
3.4.3.	Associazione Comunita Papa Giovanni XXIII, Company of the Daughters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul, Congregation of Our Lady of Charity of the Good Shepherd, International Catholic Child Bureau, World Union of Catholic Women's Organizations	634
3.4.4.	International Union for the Abolition of Surrogacy	635
	Conclusion	639

Chapter IV. Foundations of family law versus surrogate motherhood 643

OLGA BOBRZYŃSKA

[Ph.D., Attorney-at-Law]

Surrogate motherhood: current trends and the comparative perspective 645

1. Various forms of surrogacy 645
2. Liberalization vs tightening: changes in the countries allowing surrogacy 647
3. Cross-border situations: erosion of the prohibition in the countries opposing surrogacy? 652
4. Conclusions 656

DITA FRINTOVÁ

[Ph.D. | Charles University in Prague (Univerzita Karolova v Praze)]

ONDŘEJ FRINTA

[Associate Professor, Docent | Charles University in Prague (Univerzita Karolova v Praze)]

Surrogacy from the Czech perspective: “past the point of no return” 659

1. The fundamental rules of filiation 659
 - 1.1. General information 659
 - 1.2. Overview of the development of private law in the Czech Republic 661
 - 1.3. Maternity 663
 - 1.4. Paternity 665

- 1.5. Adoption and surrogacy rules 668
- 1.6. Family relationship and a close person 669
- 1.7. Summary 670
- 2. A doctrinal and political debate concerning surrogacy 671
 - 2.1. General information 671
 - 2.2. Origins of the debate on surrogate motherhood 673
 - 2.3. Developments in the 1990s 675
 - 2.4. Preparation of the amendment to the family act 680
 - 2.5. Development in the 2000s and 2010s 681
 - 2.6. Development in connection with the recodification of private law 685
 - 2.7. Current debate on surrogate motherhood 687
 - 2.8. Summary 695
- 3. Basic criminal issues of child trafficking 696
 - 3.1. General information 696
 - 3.2. Crimes of human trafficking and entrusting a child to another person 697
 - 3.3. Summary 698
- 4. Cross-border surrogacy 699
 - 4.1. General information 699
 - 4.2. Recognition of other states' decisions on parenthood determination in surrogacy cases 701
 - 4.3. Summary 707
- 5. Conclusion 707

JANUSZ GAJDA

[Professor | Jan Kochanowski University in Kielce]

RAFAŁ ŁUKASIEWICZ

[Ph.D. | University of Rzeszów]

Principles of adoption system versus surrogate motherhood 709

- 1. Introduction 709
- 2. Surrogate motherhood and Polish filiation law 711
 - 2.1. Surrogate motherhood and Infertility Treatment Act 712
- 3. Adoption in Polish law – general remarks 721
 - 3.1. Types of adoption in the context of issues relating to surrogate motherhood 727
 - 3.2. Surrogate motherhood and adoption procedure in Polish law 734
 - 3.3. Foreign adoption and surrogate motherhood 743
- 4. Final conclusions 749

ELENA JÚDOVÁ

[Ph.D., Lecturer | Matej Bel University in Banská Bystrica (Univerzita Mateja Bela v Banskej Bystrici, Právnická fakulta)]

MARTIN PÍRY

[Ph.D., Lecturer | Matej Bel University in Banská Bystrica (Univerzita Mateja Bela v Banskej Bystrici, Právnická fakulta)]

Surrogacy motherhood in the Slovak Republic – an illegal immigrant? 753

1. Introduction 753
2. Principle of the protection of the family life as a one of the basic principles of the Slovak legal order 755
3. Rules of filiation in the Slovak Republic 757
 - 3.1. Establishment of maternity 757
 - 3.2. Establishment of paternity 759
 - 3.2.1. Paternity of the husband of the child's mother (Sections 85 – 89 of the Family Act) 759
 - 3.2.2. Paternity established by a consensual declaration of the parents (Sections 90–93 of the Family Act) 760
 - 3.2.3. Establishment of paternity by the judicial decision 761
 - 3.3. Criticism of establishment of paternity according to the Slovak legislation 762
 - 3.4. Adoption 763
 - 3.5. Conclusions 765
4. View of the Slovak doctrine on surrogate motherhood 767
 - 4.1. Conclusions 772
5. Recognition of the surrogacy performed abroad 772
 - 5.1. Conclusions 776
6. Political and Doctrinal attitudes to the issue of surrogate partnership as a material sources of law and limits of potential legislative activity 777
 - 6.1. General limits of possible changes – constitutional and political context 777
 - 6.2. Presentation of political, civil opinions and opinion of the Conference of Bishops of Slovakia 784
7. The criminal dimension of surrogate motherhood in the Slovak Republic 789
 - Final conclusions 794

WOJCIECH LIS

[Professor | John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin]

Surrogate birth in light of the fundamental principles of family law 797

1. Introduction 797
2. General evaluation 798
3. Mater semper certa est under Polish law 800
4. Information about genetic origin 802
5. Invalid contract of surrogacy – reasons and consequences 805
 - 5.1. No contractual status of mother, father or child 805

- 5.2. Invalidity of surrogacy contract in best interest of child 806
- 5.3. The issue of human dignity 808
- 5.4. The problem of human trafficking 808
- 5.5. Circumventing the adoption requirements 810
- 5.6. Other issues: citizenship, legal position of donor, prenatal damage 812
- 6. Final remarks 814

PIOTR TELUSIEWICZ

[Associate Professor | John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin]

Foreign surrogate motherhood procedures versus legal principles regarding the origin of the child (filiation) 815

- 1. Possible case studies in the context of the surrogate motherhood and paternity's establishment issues 815
- 2. The Presumption of paternity of mother's husband in the context of the so-called "surrogate motherhood" 818
- 3. Recognition of paternity in the context of the so-called "surrogate motherhood" 821
- 4. Judicial establishment of paternity in the context of the so-called "surrogate motherhood" 824

MICHAŁ WOJEWODA

[Professor | University of Lodz]

Surrogate motherhood and the civil status registration in Poland 829

- 1. Introduction 829
- 2. The notion of civil status and the civil status registration in Poland 831
- 3. The evidentiary power of foreign civil status acts and the transcription procedure 833
- 4. Surrogacy and the case law of the European Court of Human Rights 837
- 5. Birth acts issued as a result of the official surrogacy arrangements 842
- 6. Official surrogacy arrangements and the Polish courts – the ordre public clause 845
- 7. Evaluating legal parenthood in the (post-birth) surrogacy context 846
 - 7.1 Welfare of the child 847
 - 7.2 The genetic link 848
 - 7.3 The time factor 849
- 8. Recognition of a document or recognition of civil status? 850
- 9. Private surrogacy arrangements 852
- 10. Conclusions 854

Chapter V. Protection of ordre public of forum in internal and cross-border situations 855

EDYTA FIGURA-GÓRALCZYK

[Ph.D. | University of Economics in Cracow]

Remarks about Judgement of Bundesgerichtshof

of 20 March 2019 (XII ZB 530/17) 857

1. Introductory remarks 857
2. BGH Judgement of 20th March 2019 858
 - 2.1. Description of factual state 858
 - 2.2. Justification of judgement 859
3. Meaning of entry into Ukrainian register 861
4. Application of German law on the basis of habitual residence of the child 862
 - 4.1. Introductory remarks 862
 - 4.2. Notion of “habitual residence of the child” 863
 - 4.3. Evaluation of interpretation of the concept of “habitual residence of the child” 864
5. Final remarks 866

RADOSŁAW FLEJSZAR

[Associate Professor | Jagiellonian University in Cracow]

Selected issues of civil proceedings concerning personal and financial aspects of surrogate motherhood 867

Introduction 867

1. National jurisdiction and recognition of judgments of courts of foreign states or decisions of other authorities of foreign states in personal and family matters 871
2. Civil proceedings related to foreign procedures regarding the registration of civil status 878
3. Civil proceedings in matters considering claims arising from valid surrogacy agreements 882
4. Civil proceedings in matters considering claims aimed directly at determining civil status 883
5. Other civil proceedings in matters related to the conclusion of surrogacy arrangements 888
6. Proceedings in cases for reimbursement for invalid surrogacy arrangements and arrangements concluded with intermediaries and organizers of surrogate motherhood 889
7. Cases for forfeiture of a performance to the State Treasury in the case of invalid surrogacy arrangements and contracts concluded with intermediaries and organizers of surrogate motherhood 895
8. Summary 897

PIOTR RODZIEWICZ

[Ph.D. | University of Wrocław]

International surrogacy – conflict-of-laws and procedural issues of judicial cooperation in civil matters 899

1. Preliminary issues 899
 - 1.1. Initial remarks 899
 - 1.2. Definitions 902
2. Characterization issues regarding surrogate motherhood 903
3. Law applicable to legal relationships within surrogate motherhood 908
 - 3.1. Law applicable to contract between surrogate and intended parents 908
 - 3.2. Law applicable to contract between intending parents and gamete donors 911
 - 3.3. Law applicable to settlements if contract between surrogate and intending parents as well as intending parents and gamete donors are invalid 913
 - 3.4. Law applicable to the child's origin 915
 - 3.5. Law applicable to parental responsibility 918
 - 3.6. Law applicable to adoption 919
4. Refusal to apply foreign law with respect to legal relationship connected with surrogate motherhood 920
 - 4.1. Public policy clause 920
 - 4.2. Overriding mandatory rules 926
 - 4.3. Circumvention of law in private international law 927
5. Selected procedural problems from the perspective of international civil proceedings regarding surrogate motherhood 929
 - 5.1. Preliminary issues 929
 - 5.2. Jurisdiction 929
 - 5.2.1. Jurisdiction on matters concerning contract between surrogate and intending parents, contract between intending parents and gamete donors 930
 - 5.2.2. Jurisdiction regarding matters on settlement between parties if contracts on surrogacy arrangements are null and void 931
 - 5.2.3. Jurisdiction in parental responsibility matters 931
 - 5.2.4. Jurisdiction in adoption matters 931
 - 5.2.5. Jurisdiction in child's origin cases 932
 - 5.3. Recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments and public documents 932

KONRAD BURDZIAK

[Ph.D. | University of Szczecin]

ŁUKASZ POHL

[Professor | University of Szczecin]

Remarks on Polish penal law and de lege ferenda postulates 935

1. Introduction 935
2. “Surrogate motherhood” and human trafficking 935
3. “Surrogate motherhood” and illegal adoption 937
4. Doubts about a possible amendment to the Criminal Code 939
5. “Surrogate motherhood” and practice 940

WOJCIECH GÓROWSKI

[Ph.D. | Jagiellonian University in Cracow]

Surrogate motherhood in Polish criminal law – de lege lata 945

1. Introductory remarks 945
2. Surrogacy in the light of the definition of human trafficking 949
3. Penalization of surrogate birth under provisions of the Infertility Treatment Act 951
4. Offenses regarding official documents (birth records) and illegality of adoption 952

AGNIESZKA LABER

[Ph.D., Attorney-at-Law]

International police cooperation against child trafficking and illegal adoption 955

- Introduction 955
1. Definition of child trafficking 957
 2. International police cooperation 961
 3. International exchange of information and data 962
 4. Methods of police operational work in cross-border cooperation 964
- Conclusions 966

DOMINIK ZAJĄC

[Ph.D. | Jagiellonian University in Cracow]

International criminal law aspects of surrogate motherhood 969

1. Norms of criminal law in international context 970
2. Sanctioned norms and the phenomenon of surrogacy and trafficking of children 972
 - 2.1. International law 973
 - 2.2. Domestic law – a model approach 975
3. Sanctioning norms and the phenomenon of surrogacy and trafficking of children 977

- 3.1. Surrogacy and child trafficking and international obligations in a field of criminal law 977
- 3.2. Domestic regulations specifying prohibited acts, connected with surrogacy and child trafficking 978
- 4. Summary 980

Addendum 981

- I. Activities of international organizations 981
 - 1. European Union. Criticism in EU Parliament annual report on human rights and democracy in the world 2014 and the EU policy on the matter (17 December 2015) 981
 - 2. Council of Europe 982
 - A. Criticism in report by P. De Sutter of 2016 982
 - B. ECHR Opinion of 10.4.2019 982
 - 3. United Nations. Report on the sale and exploitation of children of 15.1.2018 989
- II. Opinions of bioethics committees 992
 - 1. France. Comité Consultatif National d’Ethique pour les sciences de la vie et de la santé 992
 - A. Criticism in opinion No 126 of 15.6.2017 992
 - B. Criticism in opinion No 129 of 18.9.2018 993
 - 2. Spain. Comité de Bioética de España. Criticism in report on the ethical and legal aspects of surrogacy of 19.5.2017 993
- III. The reality. Review of press and e-resources (ed. Karolina Sęk) 995
 - 3.1. Introduction 995
 - 3.2. India 995
 - 3.3. France 996
 - 3.4. Germany 999
 - 3.5. Spain 1000
 - 3.6. Russia and Ukraine 1001
 - 3.7. United States of America and the United Kingdom 1003
 - 3.8. Summary 1005

Bibliography 1007

Photos from conference in Warsaw, 27–28th of September 2018 1049