

Table of Contents

Preface	7
Jelena Radmanović , Limiting the Freedom of Speech via Social Networks as a Means for the Prevention of International Crimes	9
János Tamás Papp , The Difficulties in Defining ‘Fake News’	23
Laszlo Dornfeld , The Liability of Online Platforms and Social Media in Hungarian Law	35
Álmos Ungvári , Freedom of Expression During the Coronavirus Pandemic in Hungary	53
Marcin Wielec Bartłomiej Oręziak , Selected Threats to Freedom of Expression on the Internet	71
Roland Szymczykiwicz , Legal Regulations for the Functioning of Digital Platforms and Social Media in Poland. The Concept of Fake News in Poland and Its Classification	93

Klaudia Luniewska , Legal Analysis of the Use of Social Media and Digital Platforms in Law Enforcement and Special Service Operations	111
Tomasz Bojanowski , The Impact of Social Network Regulation on Freedom of Speech and Pluralism	127
Aleksandra Igielska , The Impact of Fake News on Democracy in the Age of COVID-19	143
Weronika Stawińska-Artecka , Legal Consequences of Fake News	155
Klaudia Luniewska , Information War as a Current Threat of the 21st Century: A Legal Analysis of the Phenomenon from the Perspective of the Methods and Tools Used	169
Julia Starybrat , Where Opinion Ends and Hate Begins. Legal Consequences	191
Aleksandra Toroman , Freedom of Expression on the Internet in the Jurisprudence of the European Court of Human Rights	205
Agata Wróbel , The Phenomenon of Hate Speech on the Internet in Relation to the Polish Legal System	217
Joanna Tomczuk , The Oxford Debate: Poland Team vs. Hungary Team Censorship in Social Networks and Fake News in Social Networks. 31 May, 2021	229